Rules and Regulations for the Diploma in Computerised Financial Accounting(DCFA) Programme ( with effect from January 2020)

1. Eligibility for Admission.

1.1 Any person who possess a Plus Two course Pass certificate or equivalent is eligible for admission to the Programme. The upper age limit for admission to general candidates is 50 yrs. For the candidate belongs to SC/ST category and claims educational concession, the upper age limit will be as specified by the Scheduled Caste/Scheduled Tribes Development Department for awarding educational concession.

1.2 Each training centre will be treated as a separate unit and any request for transfer of training centre will not be normally considered.

2. Duration.

2.1 The DCFA course comprises of one semester and shall have maximum 5 months(18 to 20 weeks, including intervening holidays) of academic activities and 1 month for examination(including study leave period of one week). However, the Head of Institutions shall decide the training schedule (ie. No. of days/week, course timing etc.) suitable for each Training centre, so that academic activities can be completed as per the scheme, within the 5 months period from the date of commencement of semester classes.

2.2 The course will follow semester pattern, with a terminal examination conducted by IHRD. The medium of instruction in all the theory and practical subjects shall be in English.

3. Registration for Terminal Examination.

3.1 The Terminal Examinations will be conducted by the IHRD, immediately after the completion of course. The candidates has to appear for the Terminal examination at the training centre itself and the request for change of exam centre will not be considered. In case, any exam centre is cancelled due to insufficient no. of candidates, candidates of that centre will be re-allotted to the nearest examination centre.

3.2 Candidates who have secured a minimum of 75% of the attendance during the course only are eligible for the registration for Terminal examination. The Head of Institutions are authorized to grant the eligibility to appear for the examination, at his/her discretion, by condonation of the shortage of attendance up to 10% on valid reasons, on payment of the prescribed condonation fee. Students who have secured less than 65% attendance are not eligible to apply for "Condonation", and will not be allowed to appear for the examination under any circumstances.

3.3 The student who has secured the minimum required attendance in course and has registered for the regular terminal examination, will be treated as "completed the course". Students who have shortage of attendance, but not condoned, are not eligible for registration to Terminal Examinations. In such case they may seek re-admission to the course.

3.4 The registration of candidates for Terminal examinations will be conducted around mid-semester. The students have to apply for exam. registration through the Head of Institution in the prescribed format. Photo copies of the application forms can also be used. For Terminal exam registration, a copy of the SSLC certificate also should be attached along with the application for registration.

3.5 A candidate will be allotted a temporary registration for examination on receipt of his application for registration to the Terminal examination during the mid of semester. However, he/she will be eligible for appearing the examination only if he/she secures required minimum attendance at the end of semester. The registration of the candidates who have not secured the minimum attendance stands cancelled automatically and the candidate will have no claim for appearing the examination on the basis of earlier temporary registration.

3.6 A candidate will have up to four consecutive chances for appearing a Terminal examination from their registration to the regular examination. All supplementary exams conducted subsequent to a regular examination will be treated as a chance, irrelevant of the candidate has registered for those exams or not.

3.7 If a candidate wish to register for a supplementary examination beyond permitted maximum chance, they have to obtain a written sanction for a special chance, from the Director, IHRD . The application for sanction of special chance shall be forwarded through the Head of training centre, at least one month before the registration period of next supplementary examination or within the schedule announced. A special sanction for appearing an exam will be granted only if, a scheduled exam on the same scheme is proposed to conduct in the next exam season and the candidate satisfies all other eligibility conditions. The candidates who gets special sanction to appear for a supplementary exam. should enter the sanction order details in the application form for registration. They have to remit prescribed fee for special sanction along with the normal exam fees. The special sanction will be issued to students to pass the remaining failed papers in the semester altogether and piece meal appearance will not be permitted. The special sanction once granted is valid only for the supplementary examination mentioned in the order and cannot be utilized for any other subsequent exams.

3.8 The candidates for registration to supplementary examination shall apply through the Head of Training centre in the prescribed form along with the payment of required examination fee. A supplementary candidate is eligible for a valid registration, only if he/she is within the allowed maximum chance for appearing the Terminal examination or a special chance for appearing the Terminal examination is sanctioned by the Director of IHRD.

3.9 If it is later found that, any candidate who is not eligible for registration to a supplementary examination as per rules, has applied for registration by mistake or covering facts, his/her request for registration will be treated as void and the exam fee remitted shall be refunded by the Head of Training centre subsequently. The candidate has to apply for a refund within two months from the date of remittance, otherwise the amount will be treated as non-refundable. A candidate will have no claim for an exam registration on the basis of exam fee remittance, unless he/she satisfies all eligibility criteria as per rules.

4. Examination rules.

4.1 Candidates who have not secured the minimum attendance during the semester or those who have failed for continuous evaluation marks even for one subject have to repeat the course by paying the prescribed fees.
