Vacancies of faculties and supporting staff are existing in various institutions functioning under IHRD. Hence it has become necessary to engage staff on temporary basis to carry out the academic activities. Guidelines/instructions in respect of recruitment and engagement of guest faculties and supporting staff on consolidated/daily/hourly remuneration basis is issued every year. The same guidelines shall be followed for the recruitment of guest faculties and supporting staff for the academic year 2018-19 also subject to certain modification. As per the circular read 2nd paper above, all Head of institutions were permitted to engage temporary staff for the academic year 2015 - 16 exclusively based on actual workload, admission status and existing norms subject to ratification by the Executive Committee of IHRD provided the number falls within the recommendations of the staff creation committee as per the resolution of the 93rd Executive Committee. The 94th meeting of the Executive Committee had resolved to approve the report of the Staff Creation Committee for creation of additional/temporary posts (Non Engineering Colleges) against regular/temporary posts till the date of creation of regular posts by Government. Regarding Engineering Colleges, Executive Committee resolved that the temporary post will be created based on actual requirement/workload limiting to AICTE/University norms in force till regular post is created by Government. The report of the Staff Creation Committee was appended as Appendix A to the circular read as first paper above. All Head of institutions of Non-Engineering Colleges are permitted to engage temporary staff based on actual requirement and as per the reports. The following instructions are also issued for strict compliance by all concerned.

1. There shall be no Nodal Institution or Nodal Officer for the recruitment of guest faculties for the year 2018-19 and each institution shall be considered separately and the head of institution himself shall conduct the recruitment of guest faculties.
2. The head of institution can utilize the service of suitable subject experts in that institution or from nearby IHRD institutions for the conduct of interview, under intimation to this office. If there is no subject expert, the service of the experts from outside IHRD may be utilized (They can be paid honorarium @ Rs.500/- per subject). In the interview, communication and teaching skills of the candidates should also be tested before finalizing the selection of guest faculties.
3. The rate of consolidated/daily/hourly wages payable to different categories will be as per the orders already issued from this office.
4. Each institution shall prepare a vacancy statement in respect of each category of post as per the revised staff pattern in separate sheets in the format appended as Annexure-1. This should be prepared taking into account of the vacancy position as on 31.03.2018. This vacancy statement shall be forwarded to the Director, in which an abstract of vacancy shall be furnished. The statement should reach this office on or before 31.05.2018 positively.

5. In filling up the vacancies on temporary basis over and above the revised staff pattern, the head of institutions shall ensure that the guest faculties are engaged within the recommended intake as stipulated in the report of the Staff Creation Committee attached as Appendix A in this office circular read first above.
6. The head of institution shall prepare a consolidated statement of vacancies under all categories of post. He/She shall then invite applications for each category of post specifying the qualification strictly as per the IHRD Special Rules and subsequent instructions issued by the undersigned. A common notification for all categories of post together should be published specifying the date of interview/test in respect of each category. All vacancies should be reported to the concerned employment exchange specifying the date of test/interview sufficiently in advance and as far as possible, the candidates from the employment exchange may be engaged. In the absence of list of suitable candidates from employment exchange, the engagement shall be made by inviting application through print media. While entertaining candidate list from employment exchanges the Head of Institution shall not make any appointment in violation of the communal rotation fixed by the Employment Officer and the instruction for selection of candidates given by the Employment Officer shall be followed scrupulously. The instructions in the Government letter attached as Appendix B in this office circular read Ist above shall also be strictly adhered to.
7. The Selection Committee in each Institution shall conduct interview/test for each category of post and shall prepare separate rank lists. The format in Annexure-II shall be used for the purpose. Two attested Photocopies of documents of basic qualification and date of birth shall also be obtained from the candidates. The Heads of Institutions shall forward the minutes of the selection committee and rank list along with Annexure II format.
8. The head of institution shall then forward the rank lists for each category of post along with one photocopy each of the basic qualification and date of birth of all candidates in the rank list, to the Director, IHRD immediately after the interview. The recruitment may be done according to the requirement after obtaining the undertaking regarding notice pay. The notice pay may be released to the incumbents if the purpose for the resignation is as follows.

1. Permanent employment in Government
2. To join in any other associate institutions under IHRD
3. Medically unfit after obtaining a medical certificate from the registered medical practitioner

9. The head of institution shall engage the candidate after verifying the qualification with reference to the IHRD Special Rules. There will be no relaxation in the qualification and in any case if Head of Institution appoints a faculty/supporting staff without having prescribed qualification it will be the risk and responsibility of the Head of Institution Concerned.
10. All head of institutions shall consider the workload for each subject according to the syllabus of the courses conducted and fix the workload of each category of post under the subject, before engaging guest faculties and supporting staff. A minimum of 18 hours per week of work shall be allotted to each faculty irrespective of whether regular or guest. If the workload is less than 10 hours per week, only part-time faculty on hourly wages basis shall be engaged. Moreover, the Head of institution shall strictly take classes as per AICTE/University/Higher Secondary Education norms wherever applicable.
11. The Heads of Institutions of College of Applied Science/Model Polytechnic Colleges / Technical Higher Secondary Schools are directed to convert the nature of engagement of guest faculties on consolidated pay basis to daily wages/ hourly remuneration basis according to the academic necessity during April and May under intimation to the Head office. The engagement during vacation shall only be made after assessing actual workload and re-scheduling of time table etc.. unless it shall be the personal risk and responsibility of Head of institution concerned.

12. All Head of institutions shall note that no guest faculty is engaged without sanctioned posts as per the staff pattern published, vide this Office order No.EA4/16025/2011/HRD dated 14.01.2015 and as per the report of the Staff Creation Committee attached as Appendix A in this office circular read Ist above . The engagement of the guest faculties beyond the sanctioned posts shall be made only after getting approval from the Director, IHRD. The ratification of such engagement shall be considered only if posts are created additionally as per the recommendation made by the committee concerned.
13. If permission is not obtained in advance and a candidate engaged in anticipation of sanction, it will be at the risk and responsibility of the head of institution concerned.
14. If the guest faculties are engaged not in accordance with the rank list, the reason for this should be clearly mentioned in Annexure III.
15. The maximum age limit for the engagement of guest faculties will be same as that in government schools/Colleges and the maximum age limit of the retired hands is 60 years.
16. As in the previous years, all Engineering Colleges shall follow the guidelines issued in this office circulars No.EA3/2462/07/HRD dated 28.02.2007, EA3/8139/2007/HRD dated 04.08.2007, EA3/217/08/HRD (2) dated 16.01.2008 and circular No.EB1/4141/2015/HRD dated 18.06.2015 and all College of Applied Sciences and Model Polytechnic Colleges shall follow the guidelines in this office circular No.EA3/217/2008/HRD (1) dated 16.01.2008 in engaging guest faculties and supporting staff in their respective institutions.
17. The Principals of Technical Higher Secondary Schools are also delegated with the powers for the selection and engagement of guest faculties and trainees on temporary basis against sanctioned post on the basis of workload assessment and to pay wages and issue experience certificate on completion of tenure of engagement as per rules vide this office proceedings read sixth paper above.

- 18 The Heads of Engineering Colleges, Colleges of Applied Science, Model Polytechnic Colleges, Technical Higher Secondary Schools, Extension Centres, Study Centres and Regional Centres of IHRD shall forward the details in the prescribed formats attached herewith including workload, ranklist, appointment orders, copy of notification of guest faculties engaged, to the headquarters within 15 days from the date of engagement without fail.
- 19 Receipt of the circular may be acknowledged through e-mail.
